RECOMMENDATIONS:

"I would highly recommend James Russell as a recruitment consultant. He is highly professional and extremely approachable with any issues or concerns that you may have. He made regular contact with me and guided me to ensure that I was up to the date with everything that the client wants. The passion and dedication James shows towards his candidates and clients is remarkable. He is always willing to that extra mile, whether that be giving his valuable suggestions for interview process or offering a helpful hand in difficult situation. I can proudly say due to him I was able to secure this contract opportunity. I will highly recommend James Russell and Technet IT to client/candidates"

Venkat Sai Reddy Musku,
QA Automation Tester - Santander

"I had an opportunity to work with James to find my first contract with Santander UK. He stands out from other recruiters in the way he approaches candidates. He has provided absolute clarity about the job description, expectation and completely transparent about the interview process. Finally he very approachable and never hesitates to provide updates asked. I will be happy to work with him to find my next opportunity and recommend anytime."

Yuvaraj Ramamoorthy,
QA Automation Tester - Santander

"I have been working with James since September 2018. It was indeed a great pleasure working with James during my interview time. He helped me very much in order to get the job at that time. James and his company are working very professionally. I always get quick answers and solutions to my questions and problems. I'm so happy to work with James."
