We had the pleasure of working with Hannah during a recent recruitment campaign and I have to stress the working WITH part of the recommendation as Hannah was a consummate professional and a sheer delight and made the whole process a very collaborative and engaging experience. Nothing was too much trouble and as the client, we were given a full brief of the work carried out and constant touch base calls to keep the whole process on track and aligned. I would recommend anyone looking to recruit to engage Hannah. She will not only find you the best candidate but she will work with you to ensure all needs are met and briefs understood.

Absolutely brilliant! She has been with me from the beginning of the recruitment process till the very end. With regular follow ups, emails filled with excitement (especially on Fridays) and keeping you updated on every step of the way... couldn't have asked for a better recruiter.
