

Cydnie Maude

Senior Business Development Manager

As the Senior Business Development Manager at TechNET I am tasked with building and nurturing relationships, and onboarding accounts across the group. I pride myself on going the extra mile to really get to know my clients, what it culturally takes to become a part of their team and ensure I fully understand their challenges when it comes to all things Talent Acquisition. Personally, I have over 10 years of digital marketing recruitment experience and am passionate about all things creative. I push the limits on our candidate and client journey through identifying the compatibility of the best talent with unmissable opportunities. I absolutely love my job and I have the pleasure of being underpinned with a talented team of specialist consultants across the IT, Tech and Digital areas who all contribute to our framework to success.

MY EXPERTISE:

- Social Media Management
- Trade Marketing
- Merchandising
- Technical Support
- Web Development
- Software Engineering
- Project Management
- 1st / 2nd / 3rd Line Support
- Business Analyst

RECOMMENDATIONS:

"Cydnie is one of the most honest, hardworking recruitment professionals I've had the pleasure of working with. From the first meeting I felt Cydnie understood the brief, was committed to finding the best opportunity, and was seemingly on call 24hrs a day - I can't ever remember having to wait for a response to a message. Cydnie takes a great personal pride in her work, and it pleases me greatly to see that she is setting out on her own. One of the good ones out there, and I whole-heartedly recommend her past work and her future."

"I have known Cydnie for over three years and during this time I have found her to be one of the most talented recruiters in the industry. She is smart, resourceful and not only does she care about the client's requirement, she remains in touch for months after the placement to check how things are progressing. I find her sense of integrity rare in today's rushed world and is one person I look forward to continue working with for many years to come."

Jim Aetopoulos
Head of eCommerce, Keel

"I highly recommend Cydnie from TechNET as a specialist recruiter. Above and beyond introducing great talent, her deep understanding of the industry, ability to provide valuable market insights, and dedication to exceptional service, make her an invaluable asset. I would highly recommend her and look forward to working with her again in the future."
